PLAINTIFF AMDOCS (ISRAEL) LIMITED'S REPLY TO DEFENDANT OPENET TELECOM, INC.'s AMENDED COUNTERCLAIMS

Plaintiff Amdocs (Israel) Limited ("Amdocs") hereby replies to the Amended Counterclaims of defendant Openet Telecom Inc. ("Openet") dated February 3, 2011.

34. To the extent any of paragraphs 1-24 of Openet's Amended Answer are determined in whole or in part to state counterclaims or the basis for counterclaims, Plaintiff Amdocs incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-24 of its Complaint, and denies each and every additional averment contrary to the averments in Plaintiff's Complaint contained in paragraphs 1-24 of Openet's Amended Answer. As affirmative defenses, paragraphs 25-33 of Openet's Amended Answer require no response. However, to the extent Openet purports to incorporate by reference as counterclaims any of paragraphs 25-33 of Openet's Amended Answer and/or any of Openet's Defenses, those averments are denied, except to the extent admitted in Plaintiff's responses below. To the extent Openet's allegations state legal conclusions, no response is required.

35. The allegations contained in paragraph 35 of the Counterclaims do not contain allegations of fact requiring an answer from Amdocs. To the extent an answer is deemed required, Amdocs admits that Openet's Counterclaims purport to arise under various sections of Title 28 and Title 35 of the U.S. Code, and that this Court would have jurisdiction for proper claims of the kind alleged. Except as expressly admitted, Amdocs denies each and every allegation of this paragraph of the Counterclaims.

36. The allegations contained in paragraph 36 of the Counterclaims do not contain allegations of fact requiring an answer from Amdocs. To the extent an answer is deemed required, Amdocs admits it filed a Complaint against Openet for patent infringement, and that this Court has personal jurisdiction over Amdocs for the purposes of Openet's Counterclaims Counts I – VI in this action. Except as expressly admitted, Amdocs denies each and every allegation of paragraph 36 of the Counterclaims.

37. The allegations contained in paragraph 37 of the Counterclaims do not contain allegations of fact requiring an answer from Amdocs. To the extent an answer is deemed required, Amdocs admits that it filed a Complaint against Openet for patent infringement, alleging that venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b), and that the Eastern District of Virginia is a proper venue for the purposes of this action. Except as expressly admitted, Amdocs denies each and every allegation of paragraph 37 of the Counterclaims.

38. In regard to paragraph 38 of the Counterclaims, Amdocs admits that, as alleged in its Complaint, Amdocs is the owner of U.S. Patent Nos. 6,836,797 (“the ’797 patent”) and 7,631,065 (“the ’065 patent”).

39. In regard to paragraph 39 of the Counterclaims, Amdocs admits that it alleges in its Complaint that Openet is directly infringing, inducing infringement of, and/or contributing to the infringement of the ’797 patent and the ’065 patent.

40. In regard to paragraph 40 of the Counterclaims, Amdocs admits that a controversy exists between Amdocs and Openet with respect to the infringement of the ’797 patent and the ’065 patent.
